

PRAYER GUIDE – October 31, 2024

We invite you to enter the SANCTUARY (sit in a pew, kneel at the altar and/or other places in the Sanctuary) to spend time with the Lord listening to and crying out to Him as you reflect on and pray prompted by these Scriptures and prayer prompts/points:

--Man of Sorrows

Has anyone ever said something that hurt you?

Or, maybe you have wounded a friend with your words? Take a look at the pain Jesus endured in order to save you:

Isaiah 53:3-5 says,

“He was despised and rejected - a man of sorrows, acquainted with deepest grief. We turned our backs on him and looked the other way. He was despised, and we did not care. Yet it was our weaknesses he carried; it was our sorrows that weighed him down. And we thought his troubles were a punishment from God, a punishment for his own sins! But he was pierced for our rebellion, crushed for our sins. He was beaten so we could be whole. He was whipped so we could be healed.”

Jesus went through all of that so you could be called His son or daughter. He wanted you to know that you are chosen and loved.

In light of Jesus' sacrifice, make it a goal to speak life to one another. Ask God for the gentleness and wisdom to reflect Him with every word you say.

--Names of God

In the Bible, God has many names. Each one represents a part of His character. The names of God have different meanings for you and me because of the ways we have experienced His faithfulness in our lives.

Read each of the names of God listed at the table. Which one is the most personal to you?

How has God worked in your life?

- Father
- Creator
- Provider

- Prince of Peace
- Good Shepherd
- Counselor
- Healer
- Savior

--Let the whole earth shout triumphantly to the Lord! Serve the Lord with gladness; come before him with joyful songs. Acknowledge that the Lord is God. He made us, and we are his — his people, the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him and bless his name. For the Lord is good, and his faithful love endures forever; his faithfulness, through all generations.

--The people who live in darkness have seen a great light, and for those living in the land of the shadow of death, a light has dawned. From then on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, because the kingdom of heaven has come near." As he was walking along the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (who is called Peter), and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. "Follow me," he told them, "and I will make you fish for people." Immediately they left their nets and followed him. Matthew 4:16-20 CSB
